Assessment

(7) Equivalency assessments are conducted by the Faculty Dean and Head of School or equivalent using the Professional or Industry Experience Equivalence Form. This assessment must be evidence-based and document how the appropriate level of skills, knowledge and the application of skills and knowledge as specified in the AQF have been met.

(8) In assessing the professional or industry experience of an academic, the Faculty Dean and Head of School or equivalent may consider broader skills or qualifications beyond those described in table above such as:

- a. research and/or creative work/projects at an advanced level
- b. peer-reviewed publications, presentations and conference participation in the field of education
- c. experience outside tertiary education in industry, business, government, health care, private practice or community health employment
- d. leadership in local, state or national advisory bodies and/or community organisations
- e. leadership in the development of professional or industry standards
- f. performing in a role that requires higher order judgement and the provision of expert advice, or roles at a senior level
- g. managing significant projects in the field
- h. testimonials, awards or other recognition that acknowledges leadership or expertise in the field of education
- i. contributions in the field of education through participation in advisory boards and professional or industry networks
- j. leadership or management of research acknowledged by peers.

(9) If the Faculty Dean and Head of School or equivalent assesses the academic as not having equivalency, they must notify People & Culture (P&C) that the academic's assessment was not successful. The Faculty hiring manager will inform the applicant.

(10) If the Faculty Dean determines that an exception could be made for an unsuccessful assessment, they may request an exception from the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (DVC).

(11) Academic staff who may not fully meet the standard for knowledge, skills and qualification or experience required for teaching or supervision may still undertake teaching activities but must have their teaching guided and overseen by academic staff who does meet the requirements of the Threshold Standards 2021 and this Procedure.

Approval

(12) If the Faculty Dean assesses the academic as having equivalency, they must submit the Professional or Industry Experience Equivalence Form to the DVC for review as part of offer approval in the University Human Resource system. Applications for academic staff engaged under an exception must also be processed using this form.

(13) If the Faculty Dean is requesting an exception (per clause 10) for continuing, fixed-term and contingent continuing academic staff, approval must be sought before the offer of employment is complete.

(14) If the Head of School or equivalent is requesting an exception for sessional academic staff, approval must be sought from the Faculty Dean before the offer of employment is complete.

(15) The following outcomes may follow this review:

APPROVED	NOT APPROVED
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• DVC approves the job offer in the University Human Resource system.• For existing academic staff, the Faculty hiring manager submits the completed Professional or Industry Experience Equivalence Form to P&C• For new academic staff, the completed Professional or Industry Experience Equivalence Form is submitted to the DVC for review as part of the offer approval.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• DVC notifies Faculty Dean that the assessment is not approved.• Faculty hiring manager notifies academic that the equivalency assessment is not approved.

(16) Faculty Deans must seek DVC approval for exceptions to this Procedure.

Recordkeeping

(17) P&C will store records all successful and unsuccessful assessments of equivalency in the Human Resources System.

(18) The Performance Development Plan must include an appropriate supervision plan and evidence of scholarship in the academic staff's discipline and in learning and teaching.
