

Course Advisory Groups Policy

Section 1 - Purpose

(1) This Policy sets out the principles and requirements for a Course Advisory Group of the University of Canberra (University).

(2) The objectives of a Course Advisory Group are to:

- a. provide advice and make recommendations related to the quality and employability of new and existing courses and course components; and
- b. enable members to collaborate and engage with external members appointed to the Course Advisory Group, including professional staff from accrediting bodies (where relevant).

(3) This Policy is intended to ensure courses and course components are informed by internal and external stakeholder expertise as required by the Higher Education Standards Framework \(Threshold Standards\) 2021.

Section 2 - Scope

(4) This Policy applies to:

- a. award courses of the University that are Australian Qualification Framework \(AQF\) level 5 to 10;
- b. non-award courses of the University; and
- c. award and non-award courses delivered by the University of Canberra College (UCC) registered using the University Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) Provider Code.

(5) This Policy applies to:

- a. University staff; and
- b. affiliates and student members of a Course Advisory Group.

Section 3 - Principles

(6) All award courses will be informed by advice provided by a Course Advisory Group.

(7) A non-award course will be informed by advice provided by:

- a. a Course Advisory Group; or
- b. one or more members of a Course Advisory Group.

(8) A Course Advisory Group will include a balanced representation of gender, skills and experience, and diversity, wherever possible.

(9) A member appointed to a Course Advisory Group will represent the interests of the University.

(10) The advice made by a Course Advisory Group member will be:

- a. based on honesty and integrity; and
- b. reliable and valid.

(11) The effectiveness of a Course Advisory Group will be monitored and assessed with an evidence based approach.

(12) The processes and governance requirements for a Course Advisory Group will be transparent.

Course Advisory Group Effectiveness

(13) Faculty Board is responsible for maintaining a schedule of Course Advisory Groups and monitoring the effectiveness of Course Advisory Groups as part of the course monitoring, review and improvement process.

Student Grievances

(14) Where a grievance for the purposes of the Student Grievance Resolution Policy arises from a decision or action taken by the University as part of the Course Advisory Group processes, a student may refer to the Student Grievance Resolution Policy for resolution of the grievance.

Records Management
