

Admission Policy (Coursework)

Section 1 - Purpose

(1) The University of Canberra Admission Statute 1995 and the University of Canberra \(Admission\) Rules 2022 establish and govern the admission of students to the University as delegated by Council.

(2) This Policy document sets out principles supporting admission to coursework courses accredited by the University of Canberra (University).

Section 2 - Scope

(3) This Policy applies to University admission requirements for domestic and international applicants to University of Canberra undergraduate and postgraduate coursework courses, including associate degrees and diplomas. Information is also included on admission to non-award and to cross-institutional study at the University.

(4) Information on admission requirements for higher degrees by research is in the Higher Degree by Research Admission Policy.

Section 3 - Principles

(5) The University values education as a transformative experience for all people irrespective of their origins, age and circumstance.

(6) Admission to University of Canberra courses is determined on the basis of merit and perceived likelihood of being able to complete their course of study.

(7) For admission to all courses, international students must satisfy Genuine Student and Genuine Temporary Entrant Requirement.

(8) Offers will be issued based on a student's eligibility for the course. If an applicant is not successful in their application for a program, they may be offered a place for which they are eligible.

(9) Admission criteria for a course will be appropriate to the level of the course of study and its expected learning outcomes.

(10) Students admitted to a course should have a sufficient basis of prior knowledge and skills to achieve the course learning outcomes and the learning outcomes.

(11) Where an early offer (prior to year 12 completion) program is implemented it should be designed to provide assurance that students provided with such an offer have a reasonable likelihood of successfully satisfying the academic requirements of their course.

(12) Admission standards support the University's mission and values and its approach to professional education while emphasising student access, choice and flexibility.

(13) Academic Board determines the general admission requirements set out in this policy and the specific admission requirements for each coursework course.

(14) A faculty may apply to Academic Board for additional or alternative admission requirements at the time a course is accredited or an existing course changed.

(15) The University publishes online the specific admission requirements for each course relevant to each year in which the course is offered (refer Find a Course).

Section 7 - Definitions

Terms	Definitions
Articulation	Articulation arrangements enable students to progress from a completed qualification to another with admission or credit in a defined qualification pathway (see also definition of Credit Transfer).
The Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR)	The Australian Tertiary Admission (ATAR) Rank is used by institutions (except those in Queensland) to rank and select students for admission to tertiary courses. Other selection criteria may be used together with the ATAR.
Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP)	A Commonwealth supported place (CSP) is a place in a course at a university where the Australian government covers part of the cost of a student's studies. If a student is offered a CSP course but chooses not to be Commonwealth Supported they must notify the University in writing on or before the census date of the relevant teaching period. The University is not obliged to offer a fee paying place to a student who is eligible for a CSP. For further detail please refer to the Enrolment Policy .
Conditional Offer	A Conditional Offer of Admission may be made when an applicant has applied for a formal course of study and has not met the academic and/or English requirements for admission.
Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE)	Refers to a document, provided electronically by the University to intending overseas students as part of their offer for admission. The Confirmation of enrolment (CoE) must accompany an application for a student visa. The CoE confirms the overseas student's eligibility to enrol in the particular course of the University and includes their anticipated completion date.
Credit transfer	Credit transfer is a process that provides students with agreed and consistent credit outcomes for components of a qualification based on identified equivalence in content and learning outcomes between matched qualifications.(Australian Qualifications Framework).
Course	A course is the total program of studies leading to the granting of a university award.(Australian Qualifications Framework).
Coursework	Coursework is a method of teaching and learning that leads to the acquisition of skills and knowledge that does not include a major research component.
Entrance or admission rank	An entrance rank is a score allocated to represent particular qualifications, education or other experience of an applicant and used to determine the applicant's eligibility for an admission offer and to rank applicants for competitive selection.
Equivalent Graduate Status	Equivalent Graduate Status is recognition of prior learning approved by Academic Board that enables admission to postgraduate courses on the basis of a combination of pre-tertiary qualifications and work experience or professional membership, in addition to any special requirements of a course.
Non-award studies	Non-award studies take place through a structured program of learning but do not lead to a qualification accredited under the Australian Qualifications Framework .
Packaged Offer	A Packaged Offer of Admission may be granted when an applicant does not meet entry requirements and generally will include an offer to study a relevant pathways program/s to meet academic or English language requirements. Students will need to complete the relevant pathways program before they can progress into the University of Canberra course.
Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)	Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is the recognition of learning gained outside the Australian Qualifications Framework , that is, those awards normally offered in universities and TAFE. RPL refers specifically to learning from work or life experience, and from uncredentialed courses. RPL may be used as a basis for admission or as a basis for credit in a course.

Terms	Definitions
Student Transfer	The Australian Government and Australian laws promote quality education and consumer protection for overseas students. The laws which are known as the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 and the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 (National Code 2018) ensure that education providers are meeting certain obligations as part of their registration and providing the best possible service for international students. Student visa conditions require students to remain for 6 months with the education provider whose course they accepted, and for which the student visa was issued. For further detail please refer to the International Student Transfer Assessment Policy and International Student Transfer Assessment Procedure.
