

Naming Rights Procedure

Section 1 - Purpose

(1) This Procedure supports the Naming Rights Policy by describing the naming processes to be followed for the naming of University Property, Entities, Academic Positions, Scholarships and Prizes. Naming refers to:

- a. permanent naming and signage;
- b. Philanthropic or Sponsorship Naming; or
- c. Honorary Naming.

Section 2 - Scope

(2) This Procedure has the same scope as set out in the Naming Rights Policy.

Section 3 - Procedure

(3) The Procedure for proposing, assessing and approving naming proposed under the Naming Rights Policy is set out in the table attached to this Procedure as Schedule 1.

Permanent Naming

(4) Proposals must be submitted to Advancement in accordance with Schedule 1 and include:

- a. information on how the proposed naming accords with the principles and objectives of the Naming Rights Policy; and
- b. any other additional information reasonably considered to be necessary.

Philanthropic or Sponsorship Naming

(5) Proposals must be submitted to Advancement in accordance with Schedule 1 and include:

- a. an overview of the Donation or Sponsorship;
- b. a description about the Donor or Sponsor and how they are known to the University;
- c. information on proposed benefits to the University and the Donor's expectations of the University; and
- d. a statement on how the proposal:
 - i. meets the specific criteria set out in Schedule 1 for the University Property, Academic Entity, Academic Position, Scholarship or Prize that is being named; and
 - ii. reflects the principles in the Naming Rights Policy.

Honorary Naming

(6) Proposals must be submitted to Advancement in accordance with Schedule 1 and include:

- a. a description of how the subject of the Honorary Naming is known to the University;
- b. a statement on how the proposal:
 - i. meets the specific criteria set out in Schedule 1 for Honorary Naming; and
 - ii. reflects the principles in the Naming Rights Policy.

Restrictions

(7) Approval of a proposed name under the Naming Rights Policy and this Procedure does not:

- a. allow any Donor, Sponsor, person, group or organisation to seek material benefit from the association of that name or with the University;
- b. grant or confer on any Donor, Sponsor, person, group or organisation any special privileges, responsibility or rights relating to University Property, Academic Entity, Academic Position, Scholarship or Prizes; and
- c. if relating to University Property, transfer to new University Property if the named University Property is demolished.

(8) Proposed naming must not include logos, branding, images or legal entity identifiers, unless that naming relates to a Sponsorship.

Amending, Withdrawing or Revoking a Name

(9) Council may withdraw, revise or revoke a name approved in accordance with this Procedure as described in Schedule 1.

Naming Register

(10) The University Secretary will advise the Director, Advancement upon each naming approved or revoked by Council.

(11) The Director, Advancement maintains both a naming and a memorial register containing details of all University Property, Entities, Academic Positions, Scholarships and Prizes or memorials named and approved by Council under this Procedure.
